FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOL SPEECH LEAGUE JUNIOR STATE SPEECH TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Nobel Peace Prize Winner Kailash Satyarthi, an Indian children's activist, once wrote that, "The power of youth is the common wealth for the entire world. The faces of young people are the faces of our past, our present and our future. No segment in society can match with the power, idealism, enthusiasm, and courage of young people." Kentucky students from Hindman to Fort Thomas to Murray and all parts in between raised their voices in competition at the annual Kentucky High School Speech League State Speech Tournament February 23-24 at the University of Kentucky; the future is brighter in the Commonwealth because of the common wealth we share – these young speakers and performers.

The winners of seven regional contests held earlier this month faced off in three preliminary rounds of competition in twelve speech events. In each of these contests, the top twelve scoring entries in preliminary rounds advanced to compete in the State Semifinals, with the top six in each advancing to the State Finals; additionally, in the three largest events, twelve more entries were named Quarterfinalists and competed in an extra round before State Semifinals.

Lexington's School for the Creative and Performing Arts (SCAPA) won the state title with second place going to Rowan County Middle. Hebron Middle placed third, followed by Calloway County Middle, the Lexington School, Hindman Elementary, Highlands Middle, Beechwood Middle, Murray Middle, and Bardstown Middle.

SCAPA won the Sustained Excellence Award given to teams for outstanding performances over time; their team total for this honor will reset to zero, and they will begin earning points toward this trophy again next year.

Additionally, Carr Creek Elementary, College View Middle, Emmalena Elementary, Kentucky Country Day, and LaRue County Middle were all honored as Schools of Distinction for outstanding performances in the state meet.

Hebron Middle's Woody Zorn was voted Coach of the Year by the coach collective for the third year in a row, and Calloway County Middle School's Faith McCafferty received the Blyton Book Award, an annual honor given to an outstanding eighth grade student in honor of Gifford Blyton, longtime KHSSL Executive Director and debate coach at the University of Kentucky.

The speech season in Kentucky runs from October to January with 14 Regional Tournaments (Junior and Senior) held in February around the Commonwealth to qualify for State. Junior Division students compete in twelve speech and drama categories from Radio Broadcasting to Storytelling to Oratory.

KHSSL offers membership to all schools -- public, private, and homeschools -- serving students in grades 4-12 in Kentucky. With member schools from Paducah to Paintsville and from Boone County to Bowling Green, Kentucky's oldest student activity grows grit in Kentucky's kids and trains students how to conduct themselves in public settings, how to successfully communicate ideas, how to empathize with others via character analysis, how to read critically, and how to research properly with contests to encourage excellence.
